What's on

at St James Cavalier today

The Commonwealth Resounds, the oldest musical organisation created in Malta and linked directly to the Commonwealth, returns to its beautiful host country to celebrate its tenth anniversary.

Its flagship musical workshop, entitled Panorpheus, was created for CHOGM 2015 in a very special partnership with St James Cavalier Centre for Creativity.

Panorpheus brings together 53 composers from each of the Commonwealth countries, each writing a short piece of music including flutes and harps.

Groups of brilliant musicians from different countries will perform the pieces in five attractive concerts running throughout a single day.

Panorpheus is being presented at St James Cavalier for Creativity, Valletta, today from 10am to 1.30pm.

Leipzig Quartet recitals

The Leipzig Quartet, one of the leading string quartets of our time, will be performing Beethoven's string quartets in two different recitals; The Great Fugue and other quartets on Monday and The Harp and other works on Tuesday. Both recitals start at 8pm. Pre-concert talks will be held at 7.15pm on both days.

Tickets may be obtained by e-mail: bookings@teatrumanoel.com.mt, online from www.teatrumanoel.com.mt or by calling 2124 6389.

Mdina Cathedral Contemporary Art Biennale hosting 2 concerts

The Mdina Cathedral Contemporary Art Biennale, which is currently being held in different prestigious venues in the old capital, is hosting two concerts in collaboration with Caravan.

Caravan is a transcultural initiative which organises a multitude of arts events with the intention of creating peaceful dialogue between diverse religious and cultural backgrounds. Caravan will be coordinating a number of projects for the Mdina Biennale, including the Maltese Donkey sculptural installation and a series of concerts.

On Saturday, noted American organist Calvert Johnson will perform an East-West recital titled On A Caravan at the Mdina Cathedral at 7.30pm. On A Caravan will musically explore Arab and European cultures in two parts.

On December 4, always as part of the Mdina Cathedral Contemporary Biennale, Caravan, in collaboration with the Malta Philharmonic Orchestra, will perform a concert offering the audience a stimulating and challenging opportunity to contemplate fundamental eternal questions of existence, faith, harmony and peace through the ethereal acoustic experience of outstanding musicianship. Notes of Faith will be held at the Mdina Cathedral at 8pm. It is a musical concert of original compositions by four contemporary composers.

Admission for both concerts at the Mdina Cathedral is free.
